Jul 6 JUBILATIONS-JUKE BOX HEAVENCost $65.00

Meal is included

Show Starts at 5:15 pm

There have been so many music legends throughout the decades from corners of popular music. From rock and roll to glitzy pop and even country music, their voices and song writing skills made the world take notice. Every one of these legends at some point throughout decades past held the title of most played song on the Jukebox. Sadly, some of these beloved artists have left this world, but their music will play on forever, blasting out of that great big Jukebox in the sky!

Shirley Valentine is a hilarious (and totally relatable) comedy. Shirley is a bored, middle-aged housewife trapped in a stale and loveless marriage. She finds solace in her daily glass of wine, talking to the walls as she muses over the lack of excitement in her life. So, when her best friend Jane asks her to go to Greece with her for an impromptu holiday, Shirley jumps at the chance – leaving a note for her husband that simply reads "Gone to Greece – back in two weeks". Jane ditches Shirley for a fling, Shirley has to venture out on her own in a foreign country. With some help from an irresistible local fisherman. She sets out to rediscover herself and find the happiness she is missing.

Meal is not included, we will be stopping after the show

The entire Serengeti comes to life as never before. Birds swoop and gazelles leap across the stage. And as the music soars, Pride Rock slowly emerges from the mist. The awe-inspiring visual artistry and the unforgettable music makes The Lion King one of the most breathtaking and beloved productions ever to grace the stage. The Lion King won six Tony Awards from Best Musical to Choreography. The Lion King features the music of Elton John and Tim Rice! Tony Award®-winning director Julie Taymor brings to life a story filled with hope and adventure set against an amazing backdrop of stunning visuals. There is simply nothing else like The Lion King. New York Daily News calls it "A feast for the eyes and ears."
